WEEKLY

Rebecca's Herbal

Nestled in the heart of downtown Boulder, Rebecca's Herbal Apothecary & Supply has moved to a lovely new shop just 1-door west of their previous location. They still have the same address, 1227 Spruce St., and they still have the same wonderful products. Independent, locally owned and operated, Rebecca's has been supplying the Boulder community with botanical medicines, body care products and medicine-making supplies since 2004. When you walk in, you are greeted with the beautiful aroma of vibrant, dried herbs. These herbs are the heart of the shop and are sourced with great care. "We focus on quality and we focus on organics." A true Herbal Apothecary, Rebecca's not only provides pre-made botanical remedies, such as tinctures, teas and ointments, they also carry everything one needs to make your own botanical medicines or body care products. They have a vast array of herbal texts, including books on aromatherapy, plant identification, ethnobotany, medicinal gardening and more. Rebecca's also carries many hard to find, bulk items such as shea and cocoa butter, bees wax, unique salts and clays. They have a very comprehensive selection of essential oils as well as many carrier oils. And, Rebecca's stocks a large variety of tins, jars, bottles and containers. If you are a first-time medicine-maker or new to the world of botanical medicines, never fear, the friendly and knowledgeable staff is there to assist you. If you'd like to dive deeper into learning about botanical medicine, health, body care product or medicine making, Rebecca's offers many fun and informative classes. Check out the web site www.rebeccasherbs.com, or the add in the Boulder Weekly for class listings.

Rebecca's goal is to empower the community to use herbal products to their full potential to heal their bodies and enhance their lives. Whether you are shopping for yourself or someone else, you can be guaranteed to leave Rebecca's with a smile on your face.

Rebecca's is located at 1227 Spruce Street in downtown Boulder between 13th and Broadway, next to Sushi Zanmai. Phone: (303) 443-8878 Web: www.rebeccasherbs.com

Boulder Hydroponic

Spring Into Action. Start everything for your garden now - we'll show you how and you can save money, time and resources. Now that's a big claim isn't it? And, it is one we can back up.

You can even grow your food hydroponically - indoors or out - and save about 1/10th of the water and be able to get as much as 10 times the food out of the same space. Wow! Isn't that amazing? Being green is so much fun. We have great progressive gardening methods to help you make the most of your summer garden. The best part is - you can then bring everything inside and grow all winter too. There are so many possibilities with this new type of gardening - you won't believe your eyes or your taste buds either.

We have a very experienced staff to help you find all the right products to meet your growing goals. We have a full array of products for the organic gardener: soils, amendments, natural pest control, organic fertilizers and additives. We also have everything a person would need to set up a garden hydroponically which would include: nutrients, pumps, timers, trays, lighting and much much more.

Mercury Framing

Mercury Framing's mission today is the same as it has been for over a decade: to provide outstanding service and affordable prices to our customers, all while maintaining the highest level of fine quality craftsmanship. We believe that your treasured work - be it finger painting or fine art - should be handled with utmost care and framed to preserve and enhance its beauty for years to come.

All framing is done onsite by our friendly and experienced staff of certified picture framers whose commitment to high quality design and preservation is a top priority. Framers on our staff are certified by the Professional Picture Framers Association and have extensive training and experience in archival framing and art conservation.

We offer unique and unusual mouldings, cost effective profiles, and a multitude of liners, mats and glass options. We place a high value on personal attention, and our ever-expanding selection of framing options is presented by knowledgeable and creative designers who enjoy working with our customers to help them find that perfect frame.

Since 1996 it has been our great privilege to provide the finest custom framing to local artists, collectors, galleries and lovers of art. Visit our gallery and showroom today to discover for yourself, why Mercury Framing is Boulder's favorite place to shop for frames!
